SPRINGFILM AT THE WILDISH THEATER

A FREE monthly film & discussion program in downtown Springfield will show the documentary, New York Doll

The monthly film and discussion series, SpringFILM, will screen its next documentary at the Wildish Theater on Wednesday, April 16, 2014 at 6pm. The featured film is New York Doll presenting Arthur “Killer” Kane, a recovering alcoholic and recently converted Mormon, formerly of the rock band The New York Dolls. After 30 years, he is given a chance to reunite with his band. Directed by Greg Whiteley; 75 minutes; 2005. Greg Whiteley’s most recent film is the documentary, Mitt about former governor and presidential candidate Mitt Romney.

The program is free to attend and coordinated by a partnership among the Springfield Library, the Springfield Museum and Willamalane Park and Recreation District.

Documentaries are the focus of the series. Upcoming SpringFILM screenings are: Spellbound, Wednesday, May 7, 2014 and King of Kong, Wednesday, June 18, 2014.
